

SMARTSTOCK MEDICINE STORAGE POLICY

1. Medicines must be stored according to manufacturer instructions.
2. Temperature-sensitive medicines must be kept within the recommended temperature range.
3. Expired medicines must not be issued to patients.
4. Medicines approaching expiry should be identified during inventory review.
5. Stock records should be updated regularly.
6. Pharmacy staff should verify medicine condition before dispensing.